Enjoy a River Cruise

804-557-3006

855-462-8253

Cruising the great rivers of Europe has become an extremely popular pastime for American tourists. Unlike land tours of Europe that move you by bus from hotel to hotel as you visit various cities along the tour, river cruises are more relaxing and, yes, indulgent as you unpack once and your floating hotel brings the world to you.

This 2016 Danube River Cruising Guide puts in your hands a unique document: a digest of the itineraries and sailing dates for Danube river cruises from 3 to 11 nights long for the river cruise companies most favored by the American traveler.

If your cruising experience has been limited to large ocean cruise ships, be ready to enjoy the intimacy of traveling with 200 or fewer fellow passengers, enjoying fine dining with free-flowing wine and beer in open seating dining, small group escorted shore excursions and ample lounge areas and observation decks. You'll meet your fellow travelers and kindle new friendships.

The Danube River, extending 1,785 miles from the German Black Forest east to the Black Sea, is Europe's longest river and second only to the Volga on the continent traveling from Germany past nine countries to the Black Sea. Along its shores is a wealth of art, history and cultural treasures ready to explore in some of Europe's most renowned destinations. The view is a continuing parade of storybook towns, castles, estates, farms and vineyards

The most popular cruise is a seven-day run on the Danube between Nuremberg, Germany on the Danube-Main River Canal to Budapest, Hungary, or reverse, with a 2 to 3 day stay in Prague at either the beginning or the end of the cruise. These itineraries vary but generally include UNESCO Heritage Sites at Regensburg, Passau, Melk, Linz, and Vienna. Sidetrips may be included to such sites as Salzburg and Cesky Krumlov. Along the way you'll see the stunningly beautiful Wachau Valley carpeted with vineyards and traverse Europe's Continental Divide via the Main-Danube Canal, a masterpiece of modern engineering.

The cruise lines have upped their game on entertainment and excursions and continually add new routes, themes, guest lecturers and chefs to their packages.

River cruise vacations are wonderful options for your travel group. Group pricing and amenities start with as few as 10 people traveling together.

Don't delay. Call Go Bucket List Travel today at 804-557-3006 or toll-free at 855-GOBUCKET [462-8253]. Let us find you the perfect cruise deal for your interests, budget and schedule.

Cities on the Danube

804-557-3006

855-462-8253

Bratislava	The capital and largest city in Slovakia. Features a medieval inner city with narrow, winding streets and a hill-top castle overlooking the Danube
Budapest	Buda on the west of the Danube and Pest on the east side with Castle Hill being the oldest part of the city. Capital of Hungary and center of Hungarian culture. A very delightful city to visit on the UNESCO World Heritage list for its architecture and cultural importance.
Cesky Krumlov	Situated on the Vitava River, this small town of 13,300 is a UNESCO World Heritage site little changed from the 18 th century with Baroque buildings and the 2 nd largest castle in the Czech Republic
Linz, AS	Built for strolling, this capital of the Upper Austria Province offers a sizeable old town with a charm of past ages
Melk, AS	At the western edge of the Wachau Valley, Melk is famous for its impressive 18 th century Benetictine Abbey that commands the view of the Danube below
Nuremberg, GE	Bravaria's 2 nd largest city after Munich with a lively mix of modern and medieval, famous for its Old Town Christmas markets – the largest in Germany - imperial castle and Nazi-era parade grounds and Nuremberg Trials
Passau, GE	Situated at where the Liz and Inn Rivers meet the Danube, this walkable town was once a Roman fortress. The Cathedral has the world's 2 nd largest organ with noon concerts.
Prague	On the Vitava River, perhaps Europe's most charming city with bridges, cobbled stone streets, countless churches and a magnificent 9 th century castle. Its historic center is a UNESCO World Heritage site.
Regensburg, GE	One of Germany's oldest towns famous through the Middle Ages as a center of education and religion. The old city is a UNESCO World Heritage site.
Salzburg	On the Salzach River, birthplace of Mozart and famous for the Sound of Music and the Hohensalzburg fortress
Vienna	The largest city on the Danube and Austria's cultural, economic and political center. Once home to the Habsburg court the city still has the trappings of an imperial city with grand buildings, broad avenues and formal parks. Its famous Christmas Markets – Rathaus, Spittelberg, Schonbrunn and more - are not so much for buying as for eating and drinking.
