This 2016 Rhine, Mosel and Main River Cruising Guide puts in your hands a unique document: a digest of the itineraries and sailing dates for scenic rivers cruises from 3 to 11 nights long for the river cruise companies most favored by the American traveler.

The modern river cruise ships let you unpack once and bring the world to your door step. Forget about moving from hotel to hotel and hours on the bus sightseeing through Europe. You'll relax in a club atmosphere with from 110 to 200 other cruisers immersing yourself in the cultures, cuisine, fairytale cities and romantic landscapes along Europe's major rivers. Most ships feature open seating dining, free flowing dinner wines, choices of inclusive small group escorted shore excursions and ample lounge areas and observation decks. You'll have many opportunities to meet your fellow travelers and kindle new friendships.

The Rhine River, extending 766 miles from the Swiss Alps north to the North Sea, is Germany's busy commercial corridor carrying trade and goods from the bustling ports of the Netherlands deep into Germany's industrial heartland and back. The river forms the Germany-France border then runs through Germany to the Netherlands. Between Rudesheim and Koblenz the river transits through the dramatic Rhine Gorge. This stretch of the river is famous for its 40 medieval castles and numerous vineyards. At Koblenz the Mosel River heads west. Near Mainz the Main River runs east to Nuremberg.

The most popular 7 to 12 day Rhine Cruises:

- Amsterdam, Netherlands to Basel, Switzerland
- Trier to Nuremberg – This cruise flows the Mosel River west to Koblenz, south on the Rhine through the Rhine Gorge to Rudesheim then east on the Main River to Nuremberg
- Frankfort to Nuremberg – this in on the Main River through the heart of medieval Germany

We at Go Bucket List Travel™ are your "Bucket list Concierge Team™", experts in international travel. Let us help you discover the excitement of river cruising.

Are you leading a group of five or more couples? We'll be happy to explain how you can save on your cruise and even sail for free.

Don't delay. The 2016 season is shaping up to be very popular and cabins are booking fast. Give Go Bucket List Travel a call at 804-557-3006 or toll-free at 855-GOBUCKET [462-8253]. We'll match you with the perfect river cruise deal for your interests, budget and schedule.

Cities on the Rhine

Amsterdam	On the Amstel River, the capital and largest city in the Netherlands. Known as the “Venice of the North” for its network of canals and over 1,500 bridges. Culture, history and the charm of a great old European city are all here. The Canal Ring dug in the 17 th century around the old city center is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The Schiphol Airport, one of the busiest airports in Europe and a hub for United Airlines, is accessible by direct train from the Amsterdam Central Station.
Basel	German-speaking major Swiss city known for its cosmopolitan lifestyle, beautiful medieval Old Town center and world-class art museums. Being so close to France, don’t be surprised if you are bid “adieu” when you leave a shop.
Breisach/Friberg	The gateway to the fairytale towns of the German Black Forest and lush vineyards of the Alsatian Wine region.
Cologne	Through the ages the Cologne Cathedral, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, surrounded by tiny squares and streets of the Old Town, has been said to shelter the tombs of the fabled Three Kings – the Magi – and pilgrims have flocked to the Shrine of the Magi for centuries.
Koblenz	Koblenz lies at the confluence of the Rhine and the Mosel Rivers. The Ehrenbreitstein Fortress, accessible by aerial tram for a dazzling view, watches over the city and the rivers. The city’s appeal is in its charming old quarter and 12-th century churches.
Rudesheim	You are in the center of the German Rieslings wine estates, some dating back to the 14 th century. North of town the 40-mile stretch of the Rhine traverses the UNESCO World Heritage designated Upper Middle Rhine Valley with castles that inspired poets, painters and composers appearing at every corner of the river.
Speyer	A medieval town with an old town dominated by the largest Romanesque cathedral in Europe. This is also a gateway to visit charming Heidelberg.
Strasbourg	This is the Alsace region and Strasbourg, half-way between Paris and Prague, is known as the “Crossroads of Europe.” The old city is a UNESCO World Heritage Site famous for its medieval canals, covered bridges and watchtowers.
