

Cote de Nuits Region Wine Experiences

If Dijon makes you think of mustard and Burgundy makes you think of wine, then your day trips will probably revolve around the region's fantastic vineyards. The Côte de Nuits region is surprisingly little visited, which gives you free reign to discover the charming villages and back country roads that yield some of the world's favorite red wines. Visit the vineyards and cellars, and then have tastings before you buy directly from the producer. Most tours to the region begin in Dijon.

Here are a few ideas of what you can experience in the Burgundy Region
